In a full page advertisement appearing in the A Section of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch of Monday, January 5, 1953, captioned "Must the Rosenbergs Die", an appeal is made for clemency from "Americans". Letters from persons of other countries were also cited in this advertisement and a request was made to write or wire President TRUMAN and to send money to the Emergency Committee of the Arts and Professions to Secure Clemency for the Rosenbergs, 108 West 44th Street, New York 36, New York. This article stated that the advertisement was paid for by popular subscription and published by the Emergency Committee of the Arts and Professions to Secure Clemency for the Rosenbergs, Dr. CLEMENS J. FRANCE, Chairman, and BERNARD GERSTEN, Secretary-Treasurer.

Under the caption "Aldermen's Aid Asked to Save Rosenbergs" in an article appearing in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat on January 9, 1953. It stated that the Board of Aldermen in St. Louis were requested to pass a resolution asking President TRUMAN to grant executive clemency to ETHEL and JULIUS ROSENBERG. The request was made by HAVEN P. PERKINS, Chairman of the SLCSJRC, 3715 LaSalle Street, St. Louis, Missouri.

A. 3. National Offices, Both Past and Present

DAVID ALMAN, described by the informant as Executive Secretary of the National Committee SJRC, spoke at a meeting of the St. Louis Committee SJRC on April 17, 1952 at Italian Fraternal Hall, 626 N. Vandeventer, and during his talk stated that he and five other friends of the ROSENBERGS had originated the National Committee which had met with great success in the United States and abroad as well. He also stated that funds were being collected to enable the case to be carried to the Supreme Court. ALMAN pointed out that the ROSENBERG mass meetings being held everywhere, along with petitions being sent to the Supreme Court, would sway the judges.

2. A. Extent to Which Organization Funds, Resources and Personnel Are Utilized to Promote Objectives of the Communist Party

The specific objective of the SLCSJRC has been to prevent the execution of the ROSENBERGs. The personnel, funds and resources of the organization are directed to this end. As evidenced throughout previous sections in this letter, the CP and CP front organizations in St. Louis have assisted in this objective.

2. B. Extent Which Policy of and Positions Taken by the Organization Do Not Deviate from the Communist Party Line

Daily Worker, April 9, 1951, Page 1 (Editorial)
"The brutality of Judge Kaufman's death sentence in this so-called 'judicial process' staged amid hysteria with no other evidence but the uncorroborated word of government witnesses is an effort to make people realize what they refuse to realize. That is, that they must view war with the Soviet Union as 'inevitable' or be considered 'potential spies' and 'saboteurs'".

Two-page, printed pamphlet captioned "Should These Two People Die?" and advertising a mercy rally to be held on January 7, 1953 at 6912 Delmar, issued by the SLCSJRC, Box 1233, Central Station, St. Louis, Missouri.

"Ethel and Julius Rosenberg were indicted in 1950 charged with giving atomic secrets to Russia in 1944, when she was our war-time ally. They have maintained that they did not do it. They were sentenced to die in the electric chair. Many Americans believe there is grave and reasonable doubt about their guilt. They were convicted on the unsupported testimony of David Greenglass, a confessed spy. Now an FBI agent has testified under oath that some of the evidence was perjured."

"Already there are grave doubts about the fairness of the Rosenberg trial. An FBI Agent has testified under oath that the government knowingly used perjured testimony. Shall we wake up to find the Rosenbergs are innocent - but too late. It would be better to let them live at prison so that if they are not guilty they will have a chance to prove it."

It is to be noted that portions of pamphlets and publications issued by the NCSJRC in New York evidencing adherence to the CP line are not being herein set out inasmuch as instant publications have already been documented and it is presumed that the New York Office already has copies of same.

St. Louis Security Informants have advised the SLCSJRC has emphasized the racial discrimination aspect of the case against the ROSENBERGs and it is the principle contention of this group that the death sentence for the ROSENBERGs is too severe. No appropriate quotation from the "CP Line" file could be found to compare these two features of the St. Louis ROSENBERG Committee campaign.

Bourlet dated January 16, 1953.

Informants hereinafter mentioned are of known reliability and unless otherwise indicated are not available to testify as they are unexposed and live.

In this letter the National Committee to Secure Justice in the ROSENBERG Case will be referred to as NCSJRC and the St. Louis branch of this organization as SLCSJRC.

1. EVIDENCE SHOWING THAT THE ORGANIZATION IS SUBSTANTIALLY DIRECTED, DOMINATED, OR
CONTROLLED BY THE CP, USA

[REDACTED] DAVID ALMAN, who has been described by [REDACTED] of known reliability, as Executive Secretary of the NCSJRC. [REDACTED] SOL DERNAN who is described as the principal official in the Communist dominated and controlled Progressive Party of Missouri in the St. Louis area and who has been further described by [REDACTED] of known reliability, as having been organizer for the Professional Branch of the Communist Party in St. Louis during 1946. [REDACTED] DOUGLAS MAC LEOD [REDACTED] was an active member of the Professional Branch of the Communist Party in St. Louis during 1946. [REDACTED] serves as legal counsel for the American Committee for the Protection of the Foreign Born, explained treason as defined by the U. S. Constitution. He attempted to show that the trials in Foley Square as well as other trials at present, including the ROSENBERG trial, were all in violation of the constitution as were the Smith Act and the McCarran Act. He suggested that the Bill of Rights had been torn into scraps of paper.

A. I. Evidence Showing Origin of Organization

On April 17, 1952, a meeting of the SLCSJRC was held at the Italian Fraternal Hall, 626 North Vandeventer, St. Louis, Missouri, at 8:30 p.m. The principal speaker at this meeting was DAVID AIMAN. The meeting was chaired by SOL DERYAN. The informant estimated that some twenty-five or thirty persons were in attendance.

SAC, New York

DAVID ALMAN stated that he and five other friends of the ROSENBERGS had originated the NCSJRC and had met with great success, not only in the United States, but abroad as well. He stated that funds were now being collected to enable this case to be carried to the Supreme Court for the support of the ROSENBERG children, and last but not least, in order to send the wife of MARTIN SOBELL to Europe to speak in France, England, and Italy in behalf of her husband and the ROSENBERGS. He alleged that the Government had never proven that the ROSENBERGS were Communists and stated that he knew they were not because he had lived next door to them for a long time. He alleged that the ROSENBERGS had not been afforded a fair trial for the reason that they were Jewish. ALMAN stated that the problem at present was to obtain a new trial based on the fact that the trial on which they were convicted was unfair and the verdict thereof was the result of hysteria. He pointed out that the ROSENBERG mass meetings were being held everywhere along with petitions being sent to the Supreme Court.

DOUGLAS MAC LEOD spoke and attempted to show that the trials in Foley Square, as well as other current trials, including the ROSENBERG one, were all in violation of the Constitution as were the Smith Act and the McCarran Act.

SA CARL R. O'CONNOR,

furnished SA CARL R. O'CONNOR with information on April 21, 1952, dealing with attendance at the above described meeting. This information is filed in [redacted] On April 21, 1952, [redacted] and on April 22, 1952, SL 896-S personally furnished SA CARL R. O'CONNOR with one page leaflets announcing instant meeting, which leaflets are filed as exhibits in SL 100-11726-1A5 and 1A9, and which leaflets reflected that MARY FERGUSON is chairman of the SLCSJRC. There is no indication in the St. Louis files of any activity by instant organization prior to the above described meeting.

SAC, New York

It was indicated that the strategy was to stress the point that the ROSENBERG sentences were too severe for the reason that individuals more prominent than they had received lighter sentences for the same offenses.

10-23-52 SA C. R. O'CONNOR 100-8050-1A-241

In the December 8, 1952 issue of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, Column 1, Page 2-B, of the Editorial Section, in an article captioned "Letters From The People", clemency for the ROSENBERGS was requested, stating that the death sentence was too severe. The following is an excerpt from the article: "If the Rosenbergs die in the electric chair, everyone will have to start worrying. For from then on anybody McCARDY or McCARRAN accused of being a Communist and against whom one witness could be persuaded could be in jeopardy. We urge everybody to write to President Truman asking him to grant clemency". Signed HAVEN P. PERKINS, Chairman, SLCSJRC.

Volume I, Number 11 issue of "The Appeal", 2316 Palm Street, St. Louis 7, Missouri, published and edited by JOSEPH and ALICE HOFFMAN, featured an article entitled "People Rallying to Save Rosenbergs" and showing how religious and other leaders were protesting the death sentence of the young Jewish couple. It is to be noted that JOSEPH HOFFMAN is the subject of a security investigation in the St. Louis Office.

SAC, New York

In a full page advertisement appearing in the A Section of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch of Monday, January 5, 1953, captioned "Must the Rosenbergs Die", an appeal is made for clemency from "Americans". Letters from persons of other countries were also cited in this advertisement and a request was made to write or wire President TRUMAN and to send money to the Emergency Committee of the Arts and Professions to Secure Clemency for the Rosenbergs, 108 West 44th Street, New York 36, New York. This article stated that the advertisement was paid for by popular subscription and published by the Emergency Committee of the Arts and Professions to Secure Clemency for the Rosenbergs, Dr. CLEMENS J. FRANCE, Chairman, and BERNARD GERSTEN, Secretary-Treasurer.

Under the caption "Aldermen's Aid Asked to Save Rosenbergs" in an article appearing in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat on January 9, 1953. It stated that the Board of Aldermen in St. Louis were requested to pass a resolution asking President TRUMAN to grant executive clemency to ETHEL and JULIUS ROSENBERG. The request was made by HAVEN P. PERKINS, Chairman of the SLCSJRC, 3715 LaSalle Street, St. Louis, Missouri.

A. 3. National Offices, Both Past and Present

DAVID ALMAN, described by the informant as Executive Secretary of the National Committee SJRC, spoke at a meeting of the St. Louis Committee SJRC on April 17, 1952 at Italian Fraternal Hall, 626 N. Vandeventer, and during his talk stated that he and five other friends of the ROSENBERGS had originated the National Committee which had met with great success in the United States and abroad as well. He also stated that funds were being collected to enable the case to be carried to the Supreme Court. ALMAN pointed out that the ROSENBERG mass meetings being held everywhere, along with petitions being sent to the Supreme Court, would sway the judges.

has advised SA HUGH M. ANDERSON that the St. Louis Chapter of the National Negro Labor Council was formed in St. Louis, Missouri after the National Founding Convention of the organization was held in Cincinnati, Ohio on October 26th through 28th, 1951, and that the St. Louis Chapter is controlled and dominated by members of the Communist Party, although some of its members are not affiliated with the Communist Party.

SAC, New York

2. A. Extent to Which Organization Funds, Resources and Personnel Are Utilized to Promote Objectives of the Communist Party

The specific objective of the SLCSJRC has been to prevent the execution of the ROSENBERGs. The personnel, funds and resources of the organization are directed to this end. As evidenced throughout previous sections in this letter, the CP and CP front organizations in St. Louis have assisted in this objective.

2. B. Extent Which Policy of and Positions Taken by the Organization Do Not Deviate from the Communist Party Line

Daily Worker, April 9, 1951, Page 1 (Editorial)
"The brutality of Judge Kaufman's death sentence in this so-called 'judicial process' staged amid hysteria with no other evidence but the uncorroborated word of government witnesses is an effort to make people realize what they refuse to realize. That is, that they must view war with the Soviet Union as 'inevitable' or be considered 'potential spies' and 'saboteurs'".

One-page, green, mimeographed sheet captioned "The Rosenbergs Must Not Die", issued by the SLCSJRC, Box 1233, Central Station, St. Louis, Missouri.

(previously documented)

Two-page, printed pamphlet captioned "Should These Two People Die?" and advertising a mercy rally to be held on January 7, 1953 at 6912 Delmar, issued by the SLCSJRC, Box 1233, Central Station, St. Louis, Missouri.

"Ethel and Julius Rosenberg were indicted in 1950 charged with giving atomic secrets to Russia in 1944, when she was our war-time ally. They have maintained that they did not do it. They were sentenced to die in the electric chair. Many Americans believe there is grave and reasonable doubt about their guilt. They were convicted on the unsupported testimony of David Greenglass, a confessed spy. Now an FBI agent has testified under oath that some of the evidence was perjured."

"Already there are grave doubts about the fairness of the Rosenberg trial. An FBI Agent has testified under oath that the government knowingly used perjured testimony. Shall we wake up to find the Rosenbergs are innocent - but too late. It would be better to let them live at prison so that if they are not guilty they will have a chance to prove it."

It is to be noted that portions of pamphlets and publications issued by the NCSJRC in New York evidencing adherence to the CP line are not being herein set out inasmuch as instant publications have already been documented and it is presumed that the New York Office already has copies of same.

St. Louis Security Informants have advised the SICSJRC has emphasized the racial discrimination aspect of the case against the ROSENBERGs and it is the principle contention of this group that the death sentence for the ROSENBERGs is too severe. No appropriate quotation from the "CP Line" file could be found to compare these two features of the St. Louis ROSENBERG Committee campaign.

2. By letter dated October 22, 1952, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Aaron DeRoy Management Corporation, 2880 Penobscot Building, Detroit 26, Michigan, whose name should be kept confidential, furnished the following pieces of literature which had been sent to his company by an anonymous source:

- a. A pamphlet entitled "A Statement on the Rosenberg Case by a Distinguished Leader of Orthodox Jewry" by Rabbi Dr. MEYER SHAFER. Appearing on the pamphlet is the statement that it was published by the "National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case, 1050 Avenue of the Americas, N.Y., N.Y."
- b. A mimeographed throwaway marked URGENT and stating that word had just been received of the Supreme Court's decision refusing to review the case. It requested everyone to make appeals to President TRUMAN.

3. A full page paid advertisement appeared in the "Michigan Daily" (official publication of the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan) in its issue of December 13, 1952. This page is entitled "The Facts in the Rosenberg Case" and gives a long discourse on the case along with comments by prominent persons and publications disapproving of the death sentence. On March 27, 1951 BEN SCHNEIDER, a Government witness, swore under oath that he had not seen JULIUS ROSENBERG since June, 1950 when he allegedly took photographs of the ROSENBERGS (which were never produced in Court). The throwaway also states that there is new proof that the key witness GREENGLASS also lied. The pamphlet urges the reader to write or wire President HARRY S. [REDACTED] This source reported that he felt that the Cleveland ASP Civil Liberties Committee and the Ohio Rosenberg Committee were one and the same. b-7-D

This source advised that the ASP members seemed to be completely indifferent to the plight of the Rosenbergs and unwilling to put forth any real effort on their behalf.

Witness: [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] b-7-D
Witness: [REDACTED]

On December 1, 1952, this source advised that the CP was back of the efforts to save the ROSENBERGs because of their desire to make the ROSENBERGs martyrs for the Communist cause.

[REDACTED] stated that every effort should be made to prevent too many people identified with the "Left-Wing Movement" from the ROSENBERG meeting in order that the committee would have a better chance to obtain "Right-Wing support."

Witness: [REDACTED]

A meeting of the Ohio Committee for Clemency for the Rosenbergs was held at the home of MARY and JEROME LAND, Cleveland Heights, Ohio, on December 14, 1952. Approximately fifty persons were present for the meeting.

This source advised that the committee expected 200 persons to go from Cleveland to Washington on January 4-6, 1953, to participate in the protest march on behalf of the ROSENBERGs.

SAC, NEW YORK

[REDACTED] stated that the Communists have moved towards the front in the Ohio Rosenberg Committee.

Witness: [REDACTED]

An article appeared in the "Cleveland News", daily Cleveland newspaper, issue of December 22, 1952, concerning the ROSENBERGS which appeared on page one under the headline, "Plot Uncovered Here to Save Atom Traitors." The article was written by JACK KENNON, "News" political editor. The article stated that an attempt by Communist sympathizers to block the January 12, 1953, execution of atomic secret traitors, ETHEL and JULIUS ROSENBERG, was uncovered in Cleveland on that date by the "News."

According to the article, clergymen of all faiths in greater Cleveland were being asked by letter to urge President TRUMAN to commute the death sentence of the ROSENBERGS. The clergymen had received a letter from what purports to be the "Ohio Committee for Clemency for the Rosenbergs." The article stated that identity of the membership of this committee was carefully hidden and the only address is Post Office Box 41, Cleveland, which was located in South Euclid, Ohio.

According to the article the literature requested that contributions be made payable to the Ohio Committee for Clemency for the Rosenbergs.

Witness: Designated representative,
"Cleveland News," Cleveland, Ohio.

Another article appeared in the "Cleveland News" issue of December 23, 1952, written by ROBERT L. KEEHOE, under the headline, "Signers of Rosenberg Petition linked to Reds by Police." The article is quoted as follows:

SAC, NEW YORK

"Principal Cleveland supporters of a clemency plea for Ethel and Julius Rosenberg, due for execution on Jan. 12 as atomic secret traitors, are persons frequently linked to the Communist Party and its front organizations, Cleveland police records disclosed today.

"These records show that members of the Rosenbergs' defense committee have held three meetings here in the past six weeks, but were denied use of Public Hall and a downtown radio studio for a general mass meeting.

"The first of these meetings was under the joint sponsorship of the Cleveland Council of Arts, Sciences and Professions, a government-labeled Communist-front organization, and the Ohio Committee to Secure Justice for the Rosenbergs.

"It was held at the Sterling Hotel, E. 30th St. and Prospect Ave., on Nov. 8 and was attended by about 50 people.

"Among those present were Jean Krcmarek, former wife of the Communist leader now under federal indictment; Frieda Katz, listed in the party's Daily Worker as the 'Communists' women's leader,' and her husband, David; George Tomsik, frequent advertiser in the Daily Worker; and Fred Haug, a former union official identified at congressional hearings as a member of the party.

"Others were Norman and Nettie Berman, active in the Progressive Party and other front groups; Robert Decker, recently identified as organizer of the party's youth group here; Eugene Duchan, Frieda Kreitner, Norma Shedroff, Jerome and Mary Land; Sallie Marilles, James Schmidt, Libby Gieser, Florence Romig, Caroline Ovchar, Marin Alexandru, and Harry Becker.

"The second meeting, sponsored by the Ohio Committee for Clemency for the Rosenbergs, was held in Parlor F of Hotel Hollenden on Nov. 18, police records disclose.

"In attendance at this meeting were Allen Greenfield, son of E. C. Greenfield, a former CIO official who was a candidate for governor on the Communist Party's ticket this year;

SAC, NEW YORK

"Don Rothenberg, leader of front organizations listed by the government as Communist fronts; Sam Handelman, an attorney who has represented leftist sympathizers in court hearings and deportation cases, and Mary Land, daughter-in-law of Mrs. Yetta Land, associate counsel for the top Communist leaders now in prison.

"Third Meeting in Heights

"The last meeting, observed by Cleveland Heights police on Dec. 16 was held in the home of Milton Tenenbaum at 3085 Lincoln Blvd., in that suburb, and was attended by a handful of people

"It was arranged, police officials learned, after several efforts were made by Mrs. Margery Posner, 1692 Crest Rd., Cleveland Heights, to rent Public Hall or a downtown radio studio, for a mass protest meeting.

"It was Mrs. Posner who rented a Box 41 in the South Euclid post office for receipt of contributions to a Rosenberg defense fund. The box number and solicitation of funds was disclosed by The News after letters appealing for support of the Rosenbergs were sent to clergymen throughout the city.

"Mrs. Posner refused to identify other members of the committee but denied that it was a 'Communist front.' Asked how she would account for the fact that a large number of them have been linked to front activities here, she replied:

"I can't answer that because I'm not at liberty to disclose names. I know that I'm not a Communist and neither are a number of other members."

"Mrs. Milton Tenenbaum, who identified herself as a member of the committee but then declined to answer questions, said she was 'moved by the apparent injustice in this case.' She also admitted serving as a reference for Mrs. Posner in obtaining the postal box number."

Witness: Designated representative,
"Cleveland News",

An article appeared in the "Cleveland Plain Dealer", issue of December 23, 1952, under the headline "Rosenberg Mercy

SAC, NEW YORK

Group is Mystery." The article is quoted below:

"Efforts to learn the make-up of the Ohio Committee for Clemency for the Rosenbergs ran into a wall of silence last night, but a spokesman was ready with a statement expressing the group's views

"Mrs. Margery Posner, 1692 Crest Road, Cleveland Heights, offered the statement, but would not name any officers of the committee.

"She said she was the holder of Post Office Box 41, Cleveland 21, which is in South Euclid. It is the return address for literature being mailed urging clemency for Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, condemned spies.

"Mrs. Posner estimated 8,000 pieces of literature had been mailed out by the committee.

"Tells of Committee

"The statement she offered was that the committee was formed here following a public meeting Nov. 8. Later, she said, persons interested in the case were invited to another meeting, at which the committee was formed.

"Hundreds of thousands of letters and telegrams such as the Ohio committee is appealing for have been received in the White House already, Mrs. Posner said.

"Mrs. Lillian Moed, 10106 Pierpont Avenue N.E., said she was secretary of an Ohio committee for clemency for the couple, but would not say if her group was the same as the one for which Mrs. Posner spoke. However, Mrs. Posner said there was only one such organization here.

"Mrs. Moed said her group started out as 'absolutely non-Communist.'

"I am not a Communist,' she said. She also said she was not a member of the Progressive party.

SAC, NEW YORK

"While she served as secretary of her group, Mrs. Moed said it had no chairman. She said the post office box was not hers. Her organization has collected around $3,000 here to aid the Rosenberg children and mail literature, she said.

"Mrs. Moed said she had lived here two years, coming from New York with her husband, George. She refused to name her associates, saying it would be up to them to identify themselves."

THE OBJECTIVES OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY

No direct evidence under this caption has been received with the exception of the information furnished by
T-1 on December 1, 1952, to the effect that the Communist Party was behind the drive to serve the ROSENBERGS in order to make martyrs of them.

VII. EVIDENCE SHOWING EXTENT TO WHICH
POLICY AND POSITIONS TAKEN BY THE
COMMITTEE DO NOT DEVIATE FROM THE
COMMUNIST PARTY LINE

It is noted that the Ohio Rosenberg Committee has not participated in any activity other than efforts to save the ROSENBERGS.

VIII. MEETINGS AND ACTIVITIES OF THE COMMITTEE

On November 8, 1952, the Cleveland Council of the ASP and the Ohio Committee for the Rosenbergs sponsored a public meeting at the Sterling Hotel, Prospect Avenue, Cleveland.
Approximately 200 to 250 people were in attendance. The principal speakers were DAVID ALMAN, Rabbi ABRAHAM CRONBACH of Cincinnati and JACK DWORKIN, a Cleveland attorney. The substance of the speeches was to the effect that all present should contribute money and time in an effort to secure clemency
for the ROSENBERGS and that the ROSENBERGS had not received a fair trial. [REDACTED]

Approximately 150 persons were in attendance. HUGH DE LACY served as chairman of the meeting.

Mrs. MORTON SOBEL, whose husband was sentenced to thirty years imprisonment in the ROSENBERG case, was the principal speaker. She stated that her husband and the ROSENBERGS had not received a fair trial and that the FBI was behind the lies which were testified to at the trial. She stated that if the people in America allow the Government to destroy ETHEL and JULIUS ROSENBERG then the people themselves are that much nearer to being destroyed and that the Department of Justice could not be trusted.

Witness: [REDACTED]

An article appeared in the "Cleveland News", daily Cleveland newspaper, issue of December 22, 1952, concerning the ROSENBERGS which appeared on page one under the headline, "Plot Uncovered Here to Save Atom Traitors." The article was written by JACK KINNON, "News" political editor. The article stated that an attempt by Communist sympathizers to block the January 12, 1953, execution of atomic secret traitors, ETHEL and JULIUS ROSENBERG, was uncovered in Cleveland on that date by the "News."

According to the article, clergymen of all faiths in greater Cleveland were being asked by letter to urge President TRUMAN to commute the death sentence of the ROSENBERGS. The clergymen had received a letter from what purports to be the "Ohio Committee for Clemency for the Rosenbergs." The article stated that identity of the membership of this committee was carefully hidden and the only address is Post Office Box 41, Cleveland, which was located in South Euclid, Ohio.

According to the article the literature requested that contributions be made payable to the Ohio Committee for Clemency for the Rosenbergs.

Another article appeared in the "Cleveland News" issue of December 23, 1952, written by ROBERT L. KIRKOE, under the headline, "Signers of Rosenberg Petition linked to Reds by Police." The article is quoted as follows:

SAC, NEW YORK

"Principal Cleveland supporters of a clemency plea for Ethel and Julius Rosenberg, due for execution on Jan. 12 as atomic secret traitors, are persons frequently linked to the Communist Party and its front organizations, Cleveland police records disclosed today.

"These records show that members of the Rosenbergs' defense committee have held three meetings here in the past six weeks, but were denied use of Public Hall and a downtown radio studio for a general mass meeting.

"The first of these meetings was under the joint sponsorship of the Cleveland Council of Arts, Sciences and Professions, a government-labeled Communist-front organization, and the Ohio Committee to Secure Justice for the Rosenbergs.

"It was held at the Sterling Hotel, 1130 St. and Prospect Ave., on Nov. 8 and was attended by about 50 people.

"Among those present were Jean Kramarek, former wife of the Communist leader now under federal indictment; Frieda Katz, listed in the party's Daily Worker as the 'Communists' women's leader,' and her husband, David; George Gonsik, frequent advertiser in the Daily Worker; and Fred Haug, a former union official identified at congressional hearings as a member of the party.

"Others were Norman and Nottie Ferman, active in the Progressive Party and other front groups; Robert Decker, recently identified as organizer of the party's youth group here; Eugene Duchan, Frieda Kreitner, Norma Shedroff, Jerome and Mary Land; Sallie Marillas, James Schmiat, Libby Gieser, Florence Romix, Caroline Cvenar, Marin Alexandru, and Harry Becker.

"The second meeting, sponsored by the Ohio Committee for Clemency for the Rosenbergs, was held in Parlor F of Hotel Hollenden on Nov. 10, police records disclose.

"In attendance at this meeting were Allen Greenfield, son of F. C. Greenfield, a former CIO official who was a candidate for governor on the Communist Party's ticket this year;

SAC, NEW YORK

"Don Rothenberg, leader of front organizations listed by the government as Communist fronts; Sam Mandelman, an attorney who has represented leftist sympathizers in court hearings and deportation cases, and Mary Land, daughter-in-law of Mrs. Yetta Land, associate counsel for the top Communist leaders now in prison.

"Third Meeting in Heights

"The last meeting, observed by Cleveland Heights police on Dec. 16 was held in the home of Milton Tenenbaum at 3085 Lincoln Blvd., in that suburb, and was attended by a handful of people.

"It was arranged, police officials learned, after several efforts were made by Mrs. Margery Posner, 1692 Crest Rd., Cleveland Heights, to rent Public Hall or a downtown radio studio, for a mass protest meeting.

"It was Mrs. Posner who rented a Box 41 in the South Euclid post office for receipt of contributions to a Rosenberg defense fund. The box number and solicitation of funds was disclosed by the news after letters appealing for support of the Rosenbergs were sent to clergymen throughout the city.

"Mrs. Posner refused to identify other members of the committee but denied that it was a 'Communist front.' Asked how she would account for the fact that a large number of them have been linked to front activities here, she replied:

"I can't answer that because I'm not at liberty to disclose names. I know that I'm not a Communist and neither are a number of other members."

"Mrs. Milton Tenenbaum, who identified herself as a member of the committee but then declined to answer questions, said she was 'moved by the apparent injustice in this case.' She also admitted serving as a reference for Mrs. Posner in obtaining the postal box number."

Group is Mystery." The article is quoted below:

"Efforts to learn the make-up of the Ohio Committee for Clemency for the Rosenbergs ran into a wall of silence last night, but a spokesman was ready with a statement expressing the group's views.

"Mrs. Margery Posner, 1692 Crest Road, Cleveland Heights, offered the statement, but would not name any officers of the committee.

"She said she was the holder of Post Office Box 41, Cleveland 21, which is in South Euclid. It is the return address for literature being mailed urging clemency for Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, condemned spies.

"Mrs. Posner estimated 8,000 pieces of literature had been mailed out by the committee.

"Tells of Committee

"The statement she offered was that the committee was formed here following a public meeting Nov. 8. Later, she said, persons interested in the case were invited to another meeting, at which the committee was formed.

"Hundreds of thousands of letters and telegrams such as the Ohio committee is appealing for have been received in the White House already, Mrs. Posner said.

"Mrs. Lillian Wood, 10106 Pierpont Avenue N.E., said she was secretary of an Ohio committee for clemency for the couple, but would not say if her group was the same as the one for which Mrs. Posner spoke. However, Mrs. Posner said there was only one such organization here.

"Mrs. Wood said her group started out as 'absolutely non-Communist.'

"'I am not a Communist,' she said. She also said she was not a member of the Progressive party.

SAC, NEW YORK

"While she served as secretary of her group, Mrs. Moed said it had no chairman. She said the post office box was not hers. Her organization has collected around $3,000 here to aid the Rosenberg children and mail literature, she said.

"Mrs. Moed said she had lived here two years, coming from New York with her husband, George. She refused to name her associates, saying it would be up to them to identify themselves."

VI. EVIDENCE TO SHOW EXTENT TO WHICH ORGANIZATION FUNDS, RESOURCES AND PERSONNEL ARE UTILIZED TO PROMOTE
THE OBJECTIVES OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY

No direct evidence under this caption has been received with the exception of the information furnished by
T-1 on December 1, 1952, to the effect that the Communist Party was behind the drive to serve the ROSENBERGs in order to make martyrs of them.

VII. EVIDENCE SHOWING EXTENT TO WHICH
POLICY AND POSITIONS TAKEN BY THE
COMMITTEE DO NOT DEVIATE FROM THE
COMMUNIST PARTY LINE

It is noted that the Ohio Rosenberg Committee has not participated in any activity other than efforts to save the ROSENBERGs.

VIII. MEETINGS AND ACTIVITIES OF THE COMMITTEE

On November 8, 1952, the Cleveland Council of the ASP and the Ohio Committee for the Rosenbergs sponsored a public meeting at the Sterling Hotel, Prospect Avenue, Cleveland.
Approximately 200 to 250 people were in attendance. The principal speakers were DAVID ALMAN, Rabbi ABRAHAM CRONBACH of Cincinnati and JACK DWORIN, a Cleveland attorney. The substance of the speeches was to the effect that all present
should contribute money and time in an effort to secure clemency
for the ROSENBERGs and that the ROSENBERGs had not received a fair trial.

SAC, NEW YORK

Witnesses: [REDACTED]

On November 18, 1952, a meeting of the Ohio Committee for Clemency for the Rosenbergs was held at the Hollenden Hotel, Cleveland, at which twenty-two persons were present. The meeting was concerned with a discussion of the fact that the committee had been unable to get any support from various Jewish, Negro and other organizations in Cleveland.

Each person at the meeting was furnished with writing supplies to write the President requesting clemency for the ROSENBERGS and these letters were left with FRIEDA KATZ. b-7-D

Witness: [REDACTED]

An advertisement urging clemency for the ROSENBERGS appeared in the "Cleveland Plain Dealer" issue of January 5, 1953, sponsored by the Emergency Committee of the ASP to Secure Clemency for the Rosenbergs. The advertisement requested that the statement appearing in the paper be endorsed by the reader and sent to the above committee at 104 West 44th Street, New York 26, New York, together with a contribution. The advertisement stated that all requests for clemency would be forwarded to the President of the United States.

case was the principal speaker. b-7-D

Witness: [REDACTED]

A public meeting was held at the Sterling Hotel, East 30th Street and Prospect Avenue, Cleveland, on February 14, 1953, sponsored by the Cleveland Council of the ASP and the Ohio Committee for Clemency for the Rosenbergs. Approximately 150 persons were in attendance. HUGH DE LACY served as chairman of the meeting.

Mrs. MORTON SOBEL, whose husband was sentenced to thirty years imprisonment in the ROSENBERG case, was the principal speaker. She stated that her husband and the ROSENBERGS had not received a fair trial and that the FBI was behind the lies which were testified to at the trial. She stated that if the people in America allow the Government to destroy ETHEL and JULIUS ROSENBERG then the people themselves are that much nearer to being destroyed and that the Department of Justice could not be trusted.
